

Important information and disclaimer for participants of the Indian delegation visit (the "Delegation Visit")

The National Indian Students and Alumni Union UK (NISAU) is the organiser of the delegation visit for Indian universities visiting the UK in February 2025. All details, including schedules, costs, and deliverables, are subject to change, with participation benefits outlined on a best-effort basis. While NISAU will take reasonable precautions to ensure participants' health, safety, and well-being during scheduled activities, participants are responsible for their own safety, adherence to local laws, and exercising caution during unsupervised or optional activities. NISAU disclaims liability for any loss, damage, or injury incurred during participation in the programme, except as required by law, including issues arising from travel delays, personal injuries, property damage, or disruptions caused by third-party providers or unforeseen circumstances. Additionally, NISAU collaborates with and uses services from third-party organisations, such as airlines and hotels, but does not guarantee their performance or involvement. All information provided by NISAU in relation to the Delegation Visit is confidential, intended solely for the recipient, and may not be distributed, replicated, or shared without prior written approval from NISAU. Personal data provided by participants will be handled in accordance with applicable data protection laws, and by participating, individuals consent to its use for programme-related purposes; further details are available in NISAU's privacy policy at <https://www.nisau.org.uk/docs/NISAU's%20Privacy%20Policy.pdf>.

NISAU will not be held liable for any failure to deliver promised activities due to circumstances beyond its control, including natural disasters, pandemics, or government actions. Any disputes arising in relation to the Delegation Visit will be governed by the laws of England and Wales.
